EVERY NON-PROGRESSIVE MERCHANT

YOUR COMPETITOR

When You Coase to Advertise Aggressively!

HEN a merchant "slows up" in his advertising. and concludes to "rave a little money" in that direction, then the merchant who never had the courage and foresight to advertise adequately becomes a real competitor. Even the merchant who never advertises at all reaps a certain amount of profit from the "slowing up" process of the live store.

Not many merchants, of course, who have at any time set the pace for progressive advertising, will be content to take a backward plunge into the company of the non-progressives, of the little merchants, the easily satisfied ones, the un-awakes! But that is just what the "live one" does when he imagines that his advertising is costing too much, and that its curtailment means "saving."

If business conditions ever suggest retrenchment in advertising, the wise merchant knows that this should be interpreted as a signal for "full speed ahead," for redoubled efforts to win the business that does not come so easy as usual.
